Some major Halal importing countries like Saudi Arabia and Malaysia have specific Halal Certification Requirements and only accept those Halal imports specially meat consignments with their own recognized Halal Certification.

Halal Certification Requirement for Exports to Saudi Arabia:

Saudi Arabia has changed its Halal Certification Requirement for Meat, poultry and its by-product's exports to Saudi Arabia. According to the new requirement only those consignments would be acceptable which have Halal Certification from Halal Certifying Body with Saudi Food and Drug Authority (SFDA).
